Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! PSALM 133.1

You know what drives me to come to lodge twice a month? It's my brothers and the brotherly love we share. As the newly installed Master of Washington Lodge #21, I am formally asking all of you to come to lodge and share in that fellowship. No matter how long you've been away, you will always be welcomed. We especially appreciate having our elderly brothers in lodge. Please call me if you need a ride and help getting here.

Brothers, what an honor it will be to sit in the East this year as Master of the Lodge. Thank You! I'm very excited about the officer line for 2011. A tip of the Master's hat to all of you who have stepped up to serve this lodge. The focus of our work will be increased attendance, degree proficiency, memorial service support and the Ashlar Program. We have a lot of work to do. By working together, with clear common goals, we'll get to where we need to go and have another great year.

Congratulations to Jim Wade for being named the newest member of the Board of Directors for the NEW Library/Museum.

A huge thank you goes to Ray Pirus, member of Roosevelt Lodge, for the loan of many items from his collection of World War I memorabilia. Ray is a WWI re-enactor and has visited battlefields in France. He also watches e-bay looking for additional "deals" to add to his collection. Many people have shown special interest in the display and the positive comments are appreciated.

As you come to the end of this calendar, and are possibly looking for places for your tax deductible donations, please consider a donation to the Northeast Wisconsin Library/Museum. We are a tax deductible, private operating foundation and our monetary donation for use of space in the Northeast Wisconsin Masonic Center helps the operating budget for Masonic Center.
